

Tenure-track position with emphasis in mathematics education

- Position: The University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) Department of Mathematics, College of Arts and Sciences, seeks to fill an Associate/Full Professor of Mathematics position that will contribute to the university's nationally recognized program of excellence in the mathematical education of teachers.
- Qualifications: Successful candidates must have a Ph.D. in mathematics or a related field. The ideal candidate will have a record of scholarly achievement, outstanding teaching, and demonstrated potential for leading an externally funded, interdisciplinary research team with expertise in the mathematical education of teachers.
- Starting Date: August 2012
- First Review: Review of applications will begin November 30, 2011, and continue until a suitable candidate has been selected.
- Duties/Responsibilities: Teaching duties will emphasize mathematics courses for teachers. The successful candidate will work with faculty in the department and the Center for Science, Mathematics and Computer Education to provide leadership in the mathematical education of teachers; to contribute to the success of two current NSF grants, NebraskaMATH and NebraskaNOYCE; to obtain and lead externally funded projects; to develop partnerships with Nebraska schools and districts; and to contribute to the intellectual, research, and instructional life of UNL.
- Rank/Salary/Benefits: Rank, salary and tenure status will be negotiated. UNL makes available life, health, and long-term disability insurance programs as well as family coverage at reasonable group rates to the employee. TIAA/CREF and/or Fidelity Investment Fund are offered as retirement plans.
- Applications: Applicants should submit a letter of application, a CV, statements addressing their research and teaching, and three or four letters of reference, at least one of which should address teaching, to:
