

Special Session on Recreational and General Interest Mathematics, I

Organized by Glenn Ledder

Friday, May 15, Burnett 102

- | | | |
|-------------|---|--------------------------------------|
| 10:30–11:20 | Sylvia Wiegand,
(University of Nebraska-Lincoln) | Women and mathematics |
| 11:30–12:20 | Dan Nettleton,
(University of Nebraska-Lincoln) | Drawing conclusions from data |

Special Session on Recreational and General Interest Mathematics, II

Friday, May 15, Burnett 102

- | | | |
|-----------|---|--|
| 3:30–4:20 | Glenn Ledder,
(University of Nebraska-Lincoln) | A shell for him, a shell for thee, the middle is the lawyer's fee: the problem of fair division |
| 4:30–4:50 | Mike Ira,
(University of Nebraska-Lincoln) | The lottery problem |

Special Session on Recreational and General Interest Mathematics, III

Saturday, May 16, Burnett 102

- | | | |
|-------------|--|--|
| 10:30–11:20 | Steve Cohn,
(University of Nebraska-Lincoln) | Introduction to wavelets |
| 11:30–12:20 | Wendy Hines,
(University of Nebraska-Lincoln) | The logistic population model and chaos |