Abstract

In the context of linear programming decoding, it is necessary to know the minimal pseudo-codewords, i.e. vectors that correspond to codewords of a code associated to a graph cover of the original code graph. In this talk we will study the minimal pseudo-codewords of some of the type-I PG-LDPC families of codes derived from projective planes, and will give estimates on their minimal pseudo-weight.