1. Graph the polar equation $r = 2 - 2 \sin \theta$. Clearly mark at least 4 points on your graph and label their polar coordinates.

2. Set up an integral (or integrals) which gives the area of the region inside the two circles $r = 2$ and $r = 4 \cos \theta$ (i.e., the area common to both circles).